With facilities in the U.S., United Kingdom and Mexico, MTI is closely monitoring COVID-19 to help ensure the health and safety of our employees, customers, suppliers and communities. Because MTI is classified as an essential business (as a manufacturer for critical industries) in all our locations, please be aware all MTI facilities are open and will continue to remain open for manufacturing.

All MTI facilities are taking proactive cleanliness and safety measures to slow the spread of the virus and will continue to be diligent on this front. Given the ever-changing dynamics associated with COVID-19, we'll do our best to keep you informed regarding any impacts to MTI. Your patience, support and partnership are truly appreciated in these unique times.

Stay safe and healthy!
